Thanks Romel!

Sue and Augie - so happy to hear that the Battleship wants to offer a special for CicLAvia participants! We can promote this in two ways:

1. We can include the Battleship on our digital map as a destination near the route. Here is our digital map from the last event - we will create a new one and populate it as we get closer to the event: map.ciclavia.org We just need a blurb and photo to include on the map.

2. We can include any deals or specials on the ciclavia savings page on the event page on our website. You can visit: http://www.ciclavia.org/ciclavia_glendale17 and click specials along the route to get an idea of previous event specials.

Thanks and let me know if you have any questions!

Best,

Rachel

Hello Romel.

Please see email correspondence below between Augie and USS Iowa representative. Who should we forward these kinds of comments to in the future?

Thank you!

Hi Sue,

I'm not sure where I can pass this e-mail along. Do you know the appropriate person at CicLAvia where this can be moved forward?

Thanks,

Augie

Augie,

We most definitely would like to offer a promotion for the CicLAvia participants to come and enjoy the Battleship. The question then becomes security and placed to lock up your bike when you come to the ship.

Bike parking may be an issue. We could park them under the aft gangway fencing. In the past the LA Bicycle Coalition has offered free bike parking and provided bike valet volunteers for events like this. If we do offer a CicLAvia discount, I can reach out to the LA Bicycle Coalition or we simply have cyclist lock up their bikes at their own risk.

Let me know your thoughts.

Hi Lorena,

I just attended a meeting with the CicLAvia folks and it looks like the route is pretty firm (see the attached map). We should consider closing 6th Street off from Pacific to Centre, activating the court house parking lot and getting folks to “take a break” by visiting our downtown businesses. The event goes from 9am to 4pm and they are expecting anywhere from 50,000 to 200,000 people to show up. What do you think? I think it’s worthy to bring up at the next Board meeting....

Thanks,

Augie
